KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.

Waukegan lodge, No. 6, took eleven candidates to Williamstown last Monday evening where the third degree was conferred by Natchaug lodge, which had one candidate of its own and one from Lebanon to add to the class. The Norwich men went by automobile and by trolley and reported an evening full of interest through the arrangements made by D. D. G. C. Drescher. Next Tuesday evening Waukegan lodge will have candidates for the first degree only.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

Sedgwick corps, No. 18, held its regular meeting Friday afternoon, Feb. 24, at the Buckingham Memorial with the president, Lena Pukallus, presiding. National general orders were read and monthly reports of the treasurer and secretary were presented and accepted. It was voted to accept the invitation of W. W. Perkins Corps of New London to attend the meeting there March 8 for the reception of the department officers. The Norwich women will leave Franklin square on the 10.45 a. m. trolley car. All who intend to go were asked to notify the president as soon as possible. Notice was given of the whist evening.

NEVER WANTS ANYTHING ELSE

"I tried many different kinds of cough medicine," writes Mrs. E. K. Olson, 1917 Ohio Ave., Superior, Wis., "but I never want anything else than Foley's Honey and Tar. I used it for all my children, and also for my grandchild. It has always done the work. Foley's is a pure, wholesome and absolutely safe remedy for the relief of colds, coughs, croup and whooping cough. Children like it and it cures sneezing and snuffing. Lee & Osgood Co.

of the trays and relish dishes recently donated to the tent by a friend. The next meeting of the sewing circle will be at the home of Mrs. D. Louisa Atterbury, the first Friday evening in March, when a quilt is to be tied and sewing on aprons continued.

The HOOVER

It BEATS... as it Sweeps as it Cleans

No woman who has ever used a Hoover would think of trying to keep house without one. This fact will disclose to you that The Hoover is actually a necessity—that it really is a tremendous saver of time, of health and of money.

We selected The Hoover as deserving of our highest recommendations to our patrons because it combines the three essentials of thorough rug cleaning: beating, sweeping and air suction—and it is built to render a lifetime of genuine service.
